BELLEVILLE, MONDAY, NOV. 1.

City and Vicinity.

POLICE.—There were one tramp and one prisoner in the cells last night.

SCHOOL ELECTIONS.—The nomination for School Trustees by the revised Act will take place on the last Wednesday in December, and the election a week later.

VITAL STATISTICS.—The following are the vital statistics of the city as required for the month of November: Births 22; Marriages 1; Deaths 18.

POSTOFFICE.—The regular meeting of the City Council will be held to-morrow night instead of to-night, on account of the St. Andrew's dinner this evening.

FOR PORTLAND.—A number of cars of Rye are being shipped from Campbellford direct to the seaboard, which is another evidence of the great advantage Railways have been to the residents of this part of the country.

TEMPERATURE.—An interesting Temperance meeting was held in the C. M. Church, Tuesday, on Thursday evening. Addresses were delivered by the pastor (Rev. Mr. Walker), Messrs Robt. Gordon, J. O. Jamieson and R. Lettice.

INLAND REVENUE RETURNS.—The amounts collected in the Belleville Division for the month of November were: Spirits, $3,526.90; Tobacco, $1,476.10; Mail, $117.94; Licenses, $350. Total $5,471.04. Same month last year $6,664.15. Decrease $1,193.11.

ROWDYISM.—During Saturday night a gang of three or four ruffians visited several houses of ill-fame in the city and suburbs. They smashed windows, broke furniture, abused and beat the female inmates of the houses, and otherwise comforted themselves in an outrageous manner. The police are looking after them.

WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of the above organization will be held in the Council Chamber, (City Hall) on Tuesday afternoon (Dec. 2nd) at three o'clock. All who are willing to assist in any of the various departments of the work, will be most heartily welcomed by the members.

RAILWAY BOARD.—At a meeting of the Humberford Township Council held on Friday it was resolved to submit to the vote of the electors of Humberford a By-law granting a bonus of $10,000 to aid the construction of a branch of the Belleville and North Hastings Railway from Crockett to Tweed. The By-law will be voted upon on Tuesday, the 23rd December next.

FIRE.—Shortly after 8 o'clock on Sunday afternoon a frame dwelling house on the Wallbridge Road, a short distance north of Morris St., was discovered to be on fire. The inflammable nature of the structure and the long distance from the water precluded its being saved and it was entirely destroyed. The building was owned and occupied by Adolphus Clement, whose wife and children lost all their clothing. Some of the furniture was destroyed, but the greater portion was saved, and the structure is a damaged one. The cause of the fire was a defective chimney. Loss $400; no insurance.

When the skin is hot and dry, take HARRISON'S GINGER.

ANOTHER SENTENCE.—The boy burglar who on Saturday morning was sentenced to three months' imprisonment, was brought up again on the 24th of the same day for another offence and sentenced to five months' imprisonment, the sentence to run concurrently with the previous one.

MILITARY.—The following appears among the Militia General Orders in the Canada Gazette of November 23rd, 1879: Battalion, (Hastings Rifles) No. 6 Company, Belleville. To be Captain: Lieutenant Edward George Ponton, V. B., from 2nd Battalion, vice David Francis Henry Wilkins, whose resignation is hereby accepted. To be Lieutenant: Lieutenant William Hodgins Biggar, V. B., from 2nd Battalion, vice Charles Lane, whose resignation is hereby accepted. Captain and Adjutant James S. Hurst, V. B., is hereby permitted to retire retaining his rank of Captain.

GOOD ADVICE.—An exchange publishes the following good advice, which is commended to the perusal of whom it may concern:—"That is an enormous idea that prompts a man to rush to the newspaper office to prevent the publication of facts concerning some misfortune that has befallen him. Matters which have become the subject of comment upon the streets are better explained by the reporter in public print than by street corner gossip. The newspaper gets at the bottom fact of the case and makes them of record, so that exaggerated accounts seldom get in circulation."

POLICE RECORD.—During the month ending 30th November, 1879, 62 persons were arrested by the Police force, charged as follows:—Assault and battery, 2; Burglary, 1; Criminal libel, 1; Drunk, 15; Drunk and disorderly, 5; Exposing person, 1; Frequenting houses of ill-fame, 2; Horse stealing, 1; Inmates of houses of ill-fame, 6; Keeping houses of ill-fame, 9; Uttering counterfeit coin, 1; Larceny, 2; Lunacy, 1; Vagrancy, 3. 42 persons (tramps) applied for and received protection in the Police Court during the month. Total number of arrests Nov. 1879, 52; do. in Nov. 78, 41; increase in 1879, 11. Tramps Nov. 79, 42; do. Nov. 78, 44; decrease Nov. 79, 42.

"BLACKWOOD" for November has been printed by the Leonard Scott Publishing Co., New York. The interest already aroused in "Blackwood" is well sustained by part 8, which opens the number "An American Princess," being an analytical narrative of the life of Madame Bonaparte, though it has become a hackneyed subject, is well worth perusal. "Whig Reviewers as painted by themselves" is a readable paper which sets forth the troubles of the first editor of the Edinburgh Review and with his brilliant contributors—Macaulay, Brougham and others. "The Maronites" is concluded. "A Poor Devil" (fiction). "Among the Algonquians," "A Native's Narrative" and "The Recruit" are the new numbers.

HARRY'S MAGAZINE besides the "editor's Chair," literary and historical records, contains The Fortunes of the Bonapartes, with seventeen illustrations; The New York School-keeping, with six illustrations; The City of Atlanta, with fifteen illustrations; The Palestine of To-day, by Dr. J. F. Hurst, with thirteen illustrations; The Iron Pen, a poem by H. W. Longfellow; Sea Drift from a New England Port, with eleven illustrations; Hesperia, a poem; London's Glory and Whittington's Poem, a ballad, with five illustrations; White Wings; A Yachting Romance, with two illustrations; The Conquerors Hills; The March of Jaxartes, a novel, with three illustrations; A New and True Ghost Story, a poem; Will's Will and his Two Thanksgivings; Mary Anselmy, a novel.

PERSONAL.—One of the most accomplished of our greatest poets of the present day returned to his old home (this city) on Saturday evening last. We allude to Mr. James Gay. "The master poet" of this day, the productions of whose pen have created a general awakening to his possession of mastery poetic genius which would thrill the heart of a frozen barbarian. He wears his honors with modesty, and his modesty, fully alive to the thought that his inspired muse must yet be inscribed on the nation's roll of fame. The distinctive honor of his mind given him by the people of his country, he has justly earned and he holds with pride to his possession, fully cognizant of the fact that merit, in this case at least, has received its due reward. Though bowed somewhat by the weight of years and honors, his latest of his eye is as bright as of yore, and his step is as firm as the junior freshman of a college. And now as genius—unclouded and undimmed—its with us once again, let us raise a genuine and hearty trophy to the victor—to be placed upon his brow at the moment the first grand opportunity offers, and by doing this show that intrinsic merit has its own reward in the Hay City as well as in the Royal City of Guelph.

St. Andrew's Day.

The patron Saint of Scotland, whose anniversary was celebrated to-day, was first a disciple of John the Baptist, and appears to have been the first to follow Christ. For this reason, it is supposed that he is given the place of honor in the Anglican prayer book, where he comes first of those commemorated. But little is known of him beyond that he was a native of Scotland at Patra, in Greece, A. D. 70, by being crucified on a cross in the form of an X.

City and Vicinity.

THE GAIL.—There are 22 prisoners in the gaol—10 males and 12 females.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. Ham Perry, Registrar

of the County of Ontario, was in town to-day.

CITY COUNCIL.—The Council met last night, but adjourned, without transacting any business, for one week.

CHEESE.—October cheese is selling in Montreal at from 12½ to 13¢ per lb, and

THE FERRY.—The ferry steamer encountered a good deal of floating ice yesterday afternoon, but managed to work

her way through it.

in accordance with the predictions, and rain fell heavily to-day. Many people are earnest, as the changeable weather renders business dull.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.—Many of our lady readers are anxiously enquiring for the continuation of the story "Emeline." A pressure of other matter has delayed the conclusion of the story, but the closing chapter will be published as soon as possible.

KINGSTON FERRY.—The Kingston

1879 says: "The deputations that have been holding missionary meetings in the Belleville District have been unusually successful. West Huntington, Stirling, Sperry,

Trenton, Comstock and Plover, have all visited in turn. They were all largely attended and liberal contributions were received not only for the missions but towards the Presbyterian funds. Nearly twice as much was raised this year as for the same purpose. The deputations consisted of Rev. Messrs. Kelso, of Rolling Gray, of Stirling, Dr. Neil, Seymour, McLean,

Belleville; Stewart, Trenton; and Comstock.

All the stations visited promised to make monthly contributions for the schemes of the Church."

THE BELLEVILLE MARKET.—The Oswego

Palladium of Saturday says: "The market during the week has been moderately active, and prices at the close are 5 to 6

EMMELINE.

CHAPTER IX.

CHARLES STEVEN RESOLVED TO ABOUT

EMMELINE.

"We will return to the new friends of our young heroine. They left the doctor's house in a confused state of mind, convinced of the doctor's assistance of swindlers, and of the doctor's fraud.

At length, a clerical friend looked up for her but mind was enjoying a brown study.

"He has," laughed both Emmeline and Charles, "but we have some share in her well-being. Meanwhile you may take charge of her, and we will wait your place."

"Yes, sir," said the clerk, and on the way to the kitchen Rebecca remarked to her friends:

"That Glasgow girl is rather mawkish for the matter for us, ordering you don't eat the house was his aim."

"But the minister was thinking at the time and seemed to forget we were there."

"Oh, his subject was what he has been studying."

Leaving them at their kitchen duties, Rebecca would help, we will return to the parlor. There were two women sitting at the table for a few seconds.

CAST ON THE WORLD:

The Border Marriage.

A STORY OF THE GREAT GLASHOW BANK ROBBERY.

CHAPTER VIII.

Collins' Court was a dirty, smoky, grimy square of houses, reached by a low, dark passage from the High Street. The dwellings in it were numerous and densely crowded by people, poor, wretched, and wretched—people who, by day or night, were ever fighting a hard battle with poverty, want, and disease.

MURDER WILL OUT.

How different the whole scene from the thousand rattle pictures which that same gloomy Saturday afternoon presented in the village and hamlets, the scene of the bright sunshine, and over them floated the pure blue bosoms of health and innocence. The faces of the men and women were blooming with health as they sat in their porches, or lay on sunny banks or grassy slopes, listening to the murmur of the stream, or watching the gambols of the rosy children on the grassy and flowery banks, where shouts of glee and burst of merry laughter made brighter still the gladsome scene, and filled the thoughtful heart with a keen sense of happiness.

Even in Collins' Court, with all its gloom and filth, the children played, and that was the saddest and most pitiful sight presented. It was childhood trying to assert itself, and oh, in what a sorrowful and mournful lot. Instead of the airy lances and scimitars of childhood, their young faces showed a sharp little sickle to childhood, and their words and gestures were full of the guilelessness which should have been attached to their tender years. Poor, haggard things, the sight they saw, the experience they underwent, loaded not to foster the natural simplicity of their little minds, but to make the saddest objects of human contemplation. Those who knew what they should have been—those who knew that children of their age in happier circumstances—were a sore suffering of heart as they gazed on their young lives, already so grossly warped, and the end of the dark future into which they were likely to grove.

In a miserable, empty, and featureless room on the third story, the window of which overlooked the court, a man and woman alone. They might be about forty years of age—not older—and had that hard feeling and expression which poverty so often gives. They were Dick Marton and his wife, Bet, who, on a December night, eight years before, had, in their residence near Huffy White and taken charge of the new born infant brought to Collins' Court, in the arms of fifty pounds which he handed over with it.

These fifty pounds don't seem to have improved their circumstances—rather the reverse. NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Washington special.

The World says it is concluded. Mahone will be sent to the Senate as a Republican and repudiator.

Schurz rejected. Schurz, Chairman of the House in the Indian Commission not to press his request for all correspondence relating to the Ute troubles, as this might seriously embarrass the Department in its pending negotiations.

The World publishes a letter from the President to a personal friend on Dec. 4th, in which he says:—(Illegal tender for debts depends on uncertain action of the Congress, there will be want of confidence.

The only constitutional legal tender is gold and silver; depart from that and confidence is gone. All the world now believes investment in America are likely to be profitable. A sound financial policy will bring us money from all commercial nations of the earth. In good times prepare for hard times—in good times pay debts. Legal tender notes are debts, let them be paid by coin in the Treasury and with that coming in from abroad, and it will not contract the circulation.

State Senator Foster, of Indiana, reports that 2,000 negroes arrived in that State recently, some deplorably destitute. The people of the State are beginning to look upon the whole project as a scheme to oppress voters. The feeling is so strong that farmers who employ these people find themselves in a measure ostracized.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Mayor Howell, of Brooklyn, is opposed to spending the City money for the new Grand Central Station, not approved of the Common Council resolution tendering him a public reception. Dr. Gabriel Wolf was arrested yesterday charged with prescribing poison for a sick infant left in his charge by a mother, a servant girl. The infant cannot recover. The 7th regiment fair closes to-night. The estimated net profits are $100,000.

A delegation of Ponca Indians at the 4th Avenue hotel arrived yesterday, to seek aid in securing restoration to their lands.

Capt. Benj. Simmon, aged 46, one of the oldest Sandy Hook pilots, sentenced by cutting his throat at his house on Staten Island yesterday. No cause assigned.

The Tribune says that President Sloan, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railway, refuses positively to sign the compact to suspend running during the holidays. He proposed to restrict the production during this month by working two-thirds time. One of the officers of the Company says: "I am willing to sign any compact that will bring about some restriction of output. The Company are mining too much coal, and in the face of a light demand this cannot go on long without a reduction of prices."

Arrived, the Sorrento from Hull.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Arrived, Britannic from Liverpool.

"Cyrus."—The best thing we know of to heat a hot or cold water in to be put up in jars part of a cork situated in Perry Davis' Pain-Killer.

Food as well as Medicine.

Most people think as they swallow Cod Liver Oil they are taking medicine. In some cases they are, but in many others it is food and invigorates the system in medicine. It is not only tonic and health, but nourishment. It will save the consumptive, restore the dyspeptic, and build up the weary, when all other remedies fail, and combined with the Hygienic Food as found in Perry's Expectorant, it is a most wonderful as well as agreeable remedy.

On November 10th the work on sections 1, 2 & 3 of the Lockport Canal at No. 1 Donald's contract, was completed. All the sections are now completed saving section 1, at the western entrance, which section will not be completed for two years to come.

America and the British Provinces." The medal is valued at $300. The match was

IRON MINING.—Such is the productiveness of iron ore and the value set upon it that engineers interested in the trade are now attracted to the iron mines of the character of the deposits and their value.
Six gentlemen of Toledo, Ohio, visited Madison yesterday to prospect in iron ore mining, and others are expected during the week.

THE GOLD FURN.—From a resident of the village of Madoc who arrived in this city this morning, we learn that the report of the recent gold find in the north is not exaggerated. The pocket, which is about 9 x 11 feet, is one of immense richness and gold can be seen on all its sides.
It has been visited by many mine operators of experience, both in Australia and California, who pronounce it the richest yet seen in this country.

A GREAT LOCOMOTIVE.—One of the new freight engines of the Grand Trunk was in the large engine shed last night. This machine—No. 437—was built at the Company's works at Port Hope, Ontario, and was built by Mr. Reid, the Mechanic. The intended here, to be one of the best put together engines he has ever seen. This locomotive has six wheels coupled—three on each side, the central pair being drivers, while having no flange, so that sharp curves may be taken easily. The boiler, cylinders and tender are of course very much beyond the usual size, the latter containing a tank which holds 3,000 gallons of water, which is fed to the boiler by injectors, no pump being used. The trucks are entirely of iron, with safety chains, and the engine, which weighs 45 tons, is a credit to Canadian workmanship. It has hauled twenty-six loaded cars on the steep grade at Twickenham, which is about one-half more than the hitherto heaviest engines could haul on this division, and it may be stated in this connection that Belleville is now the headquarters for fifty-four engines.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.—The following paragraph from a Wisconsin paper is of local interest, the victim of the accident having some relative in this locality:—
"A despatch from New London, Wis., gives particulars of a most terrible case of accidental shooting, on the prevalent 'didn't-know-it-was-loaded' plan. David Dixon, of Embarras, Wisconsin county, was engaged to marry Miss Mary Swinton. The wedding was fixed for Monday the 11th inst. On the afternoon of that day Dixon called to see his betrothed at her sister's residence and while there he picked up an old pistol that was lying on the table and commenced snuffing it, taking care to point it out of the door.
The ladies were examining the wedding-dresses in an adjoining room and Dixon put his head at the door, jokingly threatening to shoot them if they made much noise.
The bride expressed her lack of fear and Dixon pointed the pistol at her, pulled the trigger and shot her through the head. She died in a few hours. The coroner jury rendered a verdict that the death caused by the accidental discharge of a piistol in the hands of Dixon. The fourth barrel of the revolver was loaded."

HOUSE-STEALING.

James Vandervoort was charged with stealing a horse the property of John T.
Lattimer. Prisoner pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried summarily.

The story of the prosecutor was to the effect that on Saturday last the defendant went to his stable and took therefrom a horse which he (the defendant) stated, he had loaned for his use to Mr. Vandervoort.
Complainant went and saw the defendant, who told him that he was ashamed of his conduct. On promising to return the horse, Lattimer said he would forgive him for this act and other delinquencies as well. Although asked several times to fulfil his promise to the prosecutor, the defendant had not done so. He had received a letter purporting to be signed by James Vandervoort, which contained a statement of an account in which the latter charged himself with the horse, which he valued at $100, and asked him to hand it over and paid him $75. From information received Lattimer learned that the horse had been sold to Mr. Vandervoort, and was now in Mr.
Sharp's stable.

In cross examination by Mr. H. Blocker, the defendant's counsel, Mr. Lattimer said the defendant was in his employ saling sewing machines, and that he considered the horse was the property of Wagner & Co., for whom he had bought it per order.

The case was adjourned until Thursday.

HORSE STEALING.

The hearing of the case of Lattimer vs. Vandervoort, was concluded to-day. The defence will be heard on Wednesday next.

REMEMBERANCE—A BIG SWINDLE.

(Montreal Post Dec. 4.)

Most people will remember that about three years ago some of the amount of $40,000 were abstracted from the Customs

House here in Montreal with the connivance of the officials of the Customs House.

The goods were mostly composed of brandy and choice liquors. The detectives have been at work ever since to recover the brandies and to capture the parties concerned, but had to give up without success. Mr. Thomas Barry, at present

Deputy Collector of Customs at Richmond, has, after three months' extra work with this gentleman, by untiring effort and the sagacity for which he is known among his brother officials, succeeded in recovering a quantity of the brandies, amounting in value to $8,000, but gave up the rest as a lost cause. However, that his good fortune might give him a clue, he went to Upper Canada and rumored about Toronto for over a week without success. One day he wandered into an old store and there he obtained some information that led him to Monter and understood him perfectly.

By pumping his new friend the Customs house, he was able to obtain a list of $6,500 worth of goods of the kind, and he was able to find the goods at various places. He hastened to Ottawa and informed the Hon. Mr.

Burpee, then Minister of Customs, of his success. That gentleman was delighted, and he was able to obtain the goods at various places. He hastened extend their present line of road, and if so, how and where? No doubt the Ontario

Reading Without Thinking.

We quite understand the ambition of men engaged in intellectual pursuits to "keep up with the world's thought." But it is this effort that kills all the professions with cranial men, and leaves them scant of thinker. Making the ocean with a dipper is the worst for those who do not realize the shortness of time and the greatness of the task. There is so little ultimate truth in the world science is pulling up her stakes and settling them forward so frequently; religion here

Gems of Thought

We are led on, like the little children, a way that we know not.

One must learn to deal with odd and o in life as well as in figures.

We can hardly learn humility and ten ness enough except by suffering.

When that is good comes or age likely to live, there is reason for rejoicing.

It is better sometimes not to follow reforms of abuses beyond the threshold their own homes.

There is no feeling, perhaps, except extremes of fear and grief, that does not relief in music.

The strongest heart will faint sometime under the feeling that enemies are bitter that friends only know half the sorrow.

In the conflict between vice and virtue the heart of man, one side or the other triumph; it is impossible for the result to battle.

If we ever caught in a shower of pity remember we can find shelter in some poor neighbor, on whose threshold might allow some of the superfluous drops.

As waste and worthless lands can be used to yield abundantly by proper care and cultivation, so can a life of selfishness and indifference be kind and sympathetic to the needy.

No man can be thoroughly manly, who carries the blossom, bloom and fruit, unless he has the seed that belongs to a good and a well regulated mind. Asceticism can make a good man.

We have never seen a man bowling himself into the ground, something of contemptible weakness. No individual or nation can rise to eminence in any department, who gives itself up to the hands of the enemy.

Education is the key to the door of knowledge.

Nature, our mother, is a queen. She her kingdom to care for, and if now and she gives a kiss or a smile to our little ies, it is all we can expect of her. She seen so many breaking hearts healed, knows nothing of death and parting.
knows death only as a phase of life.

A ragged, greasy, unkempt tramp was shuffling into a lawyer's office one day, asked if Mr. —, the jurist was in. He was. Well, the pedestrian wanted a horse. He was dead broke, without a nickel, was troubled with an aching void in stomach. The legal light expressed some surprise as to why he had come to him but when the tramp said, "Colonel," said

A return to the Legislature in 1911 showed the income of English endowments to be $258,710. Annual Supper and Reunion.

Thirty employees of Walker & Co., founders and agricultural implement manufacturers, attended the annual reunion and supper of employees at the residence of Mr. W. C. Greenleaf, at J. A. & A. Walker's restaurant. All of the employees of Walker & Co. were present.

Knowing how cheerfully Mrs. Greenleaf has always given her husband a grand social and charitable concert at a great deal of time and very considerable inconvenience to herself, it felt that she ought to be able to express her own gratitude to her husband who has been so kind to her in his kindness and to her husband to attend her concert, given as it was in aid of church people who are so willing to make demands upon their time and influence of others, particularly prominent, ought to show their sense of favor rendered by a generous response.

Why Will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more malady, such as Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Lung trouble, when an immediate relief can be so readily obtained. Brown's German Syrup has been the largest sale in the world for the cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung trouble. It is Dr. Richter's German preparation, and is prepared with the greatest and most valuable of ingredients in administering it to the youngest child, as the use of this medicine is unparalleled. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand and a steady report of a failure to do business in any case. Ask your druggist as to send you a bottle. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.

back for better direction, just as they must do a letter is addressed to New York City without the addition of "N. Y." The error in question is a very stupid and unnecessary one, and the Post Office clerk Oswego must be as stupid as the order, else they could not but know that Belleville, N. Y., has no newspaper called the Intelligencer.

THE FARMER.—The hay is now frozen so hard that the lower ferry has been obliged to stop, one day earlier than last year.

THE UPPER FERRY is still running, making her trips slowly.

BERT TAYLOR ON RECORD.—The time (8 seconds) made by Mr. John S. Barnes, in his 100 yards race against time on Saturday was the best on record in America, the best previous being 10 seconds. The course was carefully measured, the time taken with chronometer by totally disinterested parties; so that there cannot be a doubt of the genuineness of the performance.

Messrs. W. F. McMahon, R. M. Roy, James Jones, Prof. D. C. Ross, certify to the correctness of time and track.

COMMITTEE FOR FERRIS.—A man named Ross, who used the Grand Trunk Railway Company in the York County Court for $175, the value of the track and its contents which the alleged was lost on the road between Belleville and Stratford, has found the tables turned on him most effectually. The Company's official that the track could have been seen as the plaintiff alleged, and the Judge, in discharge, denounced the claim as an imposture and the man as a perjurer. A writ was given for the defendant, and the plaintiff was committed for trial for perjury.

WEST BELLEVILLE FLOURING MILL.—It will be seen by advertisement that Mr. R. B. Cooper, who has recently come into possession of these mills, has entirely re-built the same, and added many improvements, and is now prepared to do all kinds of flouring and grating in a manner that will give entire satisfaction. He also keeps on and all kinds of flour, meal, feed, &c. Mr. Cooper is a miller of very large experience, and is noted for his fair and square dealing. Those who do business with him may be certain of obtaining every satisfaction.

FIRE.—At 9.30 on Sunday evening fire was discovered in the second story of the large frame tenement on Pinnacle Street opposite Drury's Warehouse. From some cause a bed, the property of Mrs. O'Rourke, who occupies a portion of the second floor of the building, took fire. Some young men went to the rescue and took the bed back from the house. The fire spread rapidly, and the fire engine arrived it across the street, where it was allowed to consume. The bed covering was entirely destroyed. The bed clothing was burned. Both engines were brought out, but fortunately this service was not required. The loss, though trifling, is a serious one to the old lady, who can ill afford it.

ODD-FELLOWS' FUNERAL.—About one hundred of the Belleville Oddfellows, including their band, proceeded yesterday morning by special train to Madoc, to attend the funeral of Mr. A. Macfarlane, brother of Madoc Lodge. On arriving at Madoc, they were met by the brethren there and driven to the residence of deceased, which is about a mile and a half from the village. The funeral service was performed by the Rev. Mr. Martin, the pastor. The procession was then re-formed and proceeded to the cemetery—the band playing solemn dirges by the way—the remains were interred with the solemnities peculiar to the order. The funeral procession was the largest and most imposing ever held in Madoc. At 5 p.m. the Belleville brethren reached home.

NEW BOOK.

THE ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF METHODISM, FROM THE DAYS OF WESLEY TO THE PRESENT TIME. By the Rev. W. H. Daniels, M.A., containing over 250 engravings, maps and charts.

The Methodist Book Room of Toronto is sending out this last and best volume.

The Rev. Mr. Briggs, the newly appointed Book Steward, gives this book his most hearty commendation.

It ought to be in the hands of every Methodist.

The Rev. Dr. Weldon of New York says it is "an admirable volume, written with an accuracy, a life and freshness which will insure it a deserved and widespread popularity." Bishop Harris says "the author has done his work well, faithfully, loyally, wisely, lovingly." Rev. Dr. Fowler says "I believe in this book, it is a good reading for every one, especially for our young people. Historically it is accurate, spirited and full of life; artistically attractive and authentic, and mechanically as nearly perfect as human production can well be made. In order that this volume may have a place in every Methodist family, the price has been fixed far below the usual figures for such elaborate works. The book is bound in a fine cloth, and is printed in a large and legible type. It is a volume of 768 pages, and is sold only by Methodist Ministers and other authorized agents.

The Rev. O. Lambly, M.A. has been appointed agent for Belleville, and will immediately visit the churches of this place, and give a general public of this city, confident that all who see this beautifully bound volume will desire to possess a copy of the same. The volume is a beautiful and popular presentation of the Bridge Street Church.

"The Illustrated History of Methodism," by the Rev. W. H. Daniels, M.A., will be a very important addition to the library of every Methodist, as well as of every Protestant Church. Being much more concise than Mr. Albert Stevens' extensive work, it is of a compact and a more popular character, and is a volume which every Methodist should possess. It is a volume of 768 pages, and is sold only by Methodist Ministers and other authorized agents.

The Rev. O. Lambly, M.A. has been appointed agent for Belleville, and will immediately visit the churches of this place, and give a general public of this city, confident that all who see this beautifully bound volume will desire to possess a copy of the same. NOT ONLY REVERSED THE ACTION OF HIS PREDECESSOR, BUT SENT AN AMBASSADOR TO FRANCE, AND REPORTED THE RESULTS OF HIS MISSION.

Mr. CARNEGIE in reply said that the Ottawa scheme would cost from twelve to twenty-seven millions - and this did not include a harbor at the mouth of the French River. It was very far from being a small affair. The matter, he thought, would not be open so long in the year as it had been in the past. The cost of constructing a harbor at French River, which, being at present far from safe for shipping, would require a large expenditure of money; whereas at the French River, the cost of the harbor at Midland - one of the finest and safest on the lake. The Trent Valley had one of the best harbors on Georgian Bay. There was only twenty miles in distance in favor of the Ottawa scheme, and this did not think would justify the extra expenditure. He believed that both schemes would be required, but thought that they should first build the one that could be the most easily and the cheapest constructed, which was the Trent Canal.

Mr. McCulloch expressed the opinion that a five feet draught of water would be more than sufficient to enable them to transport the goods. Mr. Carnegie believed that their locks were adapted for the most economical use of the water. At the present time, the locks were down the Trent River, which was a great deal of work. RELLEVILLE, TUESDAY, DEC. 30.

West Hastings.

Owing to acts of bribery committed by some of its agents, the election of Alexander Robertson, Esq., as member of the Ontario Legislature for West Hastings, was set aside, with costs against the respondent. That Mr. Robertson had neither knowledge nor connection with the acts which have caused the voiding of the election, was made perfectly clear, both by his own evidence and that of the witnesses whose testimony was taken in the case.

We are sure that under these circumstances a general feeling of sympathy for Mr. Robertson will be felt throughout the constituency, and it is quite probable that he again be a candidate, as we have no doubt will be the case, he will be re-elected by acclamation. Should opposition be offered, we expect to see the splendid majority of 337 which was cast for him in June largely increased. That, despite the illegal and indecent actions of some of his supporters, Mr. Robertson was the choice of a large majority of the electors who were unbiassed and unbiased there can be no doubt, and the people owe it to themselves as to him to return that gentleman as their representative.

The Mayoralty.

By the retirement of Mr. Hamby at the eleventh hour, Mr. Benson Patterson has been chosen Mayor of Belleville for 1880. This unexpected result, which, we understand, was brought about through the deliberations of a committee of friends of the candidates, appointed by them to arbitrate on their claims to a large number of the electors by surprise.

Having offered to Mr. Patterson an honorable opposition, believing his honorable opponent to be the better fitted of the two candidates, we yet have expressed the belief that he would fill the position of Chief Magistrate of the city creditably. We hope that the best anticipations of his friends may be realized, and that he will prove a thoroughly efficient Mayor. In any event, which he may take calculated to benefit the city, the Intelligencer will cordially support him.

Afghanistan.

The hopeful anticipations which we ventured to hold forth regarding the situation of the British forces in Afghanistan, despite the gloomy view generally given expression to by our contemporaries, have been fully borne out. On the 23rd the enemy, apparently aware that if success was to be theirs, they must cut General Roberts from his stronghold in Shirpur before reinforcements could join and enable him to assume the offensive, attacked his position in great force. Although the assault was made with the utmost bravery, it was gallantly met and decisively repulsed. The British loss was very slight, while that of the Afghans was so severe that they will scarcely be able to muster strength again or to cause much further trouble.

On the following day Gough's detachment joined, and communication was made at once to be restored. Evidently the worst is past, and the task of restoring order will probably be completed at an early day.

Mayoralty Nominations.

SOUTH WESTWORTH.—The result of the scrutiny in the South Westworth (local election) case is that Mr. Avey has been declared elected. Mr. Carpenter (local election) was returned as elected by a majority of one vote.

THE AFGHAN WAR.—Despatches have been received from Sir F. Roberts to the 21st inst. He had a two day's engagement with the enemy, and defeated them on all sides. Cabul and the Hisar are to be recovered if deemed safe, and considerable numbers of prisoners and arms were taken. General Gough's force had defeated that of Sir Frederick Roberts.

Visit of Ministers.

AN EARLY ARRIVAL AND A HASTY GLANCE AT SOME MANUFACTURES.

THEIR DEPARTURE FOR MAPOO AND MARMORA.

The expected arrival in our city of Sir Leonard Tilley, Mr. Charles Tupper and Hon. Mackenzie Bowden, occurred this morning. The weather being cold and stormy, and the hour of arrival early, there was a large attendance at the Grand Trunk Station to welcome the distinguished gentlemen. That duty was discharged by a detachment composed of Mayor Robson, Messrs. Mayne, Patterson, Ald. Dickson, McInch, and Robertson and W. H. Panton, Esq.

As the visitors stepped from the train they were welcomed by the deputations, and by a few citizens, and conducted to an omnibus in waiting, in which they were driven to the Duff House. Here a considerable number of citizens of both political parties gathered, and after a short delay breakfast was served.

After the morning repast had been discussed, the Ministers, accompanied by several other gentlemen, including Mr. Wood, Mr. Joe Keeler, Mr. J. E. Brown, M. P., the Mayor and others, paid a flying visit to Walker & Co's foundry, Tickle's furniture manufactory, Brown's foundry and Jewell's ice factory. At all of these establishments work was found to be "humming," and the visitors were much pleased with what they saw. They then proceeded to the railway crossing, where the special train, which was composed of an engine, three cars and a van, conveying a considerable party, was drawn up awaiting them, and they proceeded on their journey to Mapoo.

A representative of the Intelligencer accompanies the party and will give full details of their movements.

It is pleasing to note that, although time did not permit of Mr. Tupper's visit to the city, he was warmly welcomed by the citizens, and it is quite probable that he will again be a candidate, as we have no doubt will be the case, he will be re-elected by acclamation. Should opposition be offered, we expect to see the splendid majority of 337 which was cast for him in June largely increased. That, despite the illegal and indecent actions of some of his supporters, Mr. Robertson was the choice of a large majority of the electors who were unbiassed and unbiased there can be no doubt, and the people owe it to themselves as to him to return that gentleman as their representative.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

AMERICAN.

PIKE HILL, Ky., Dec. 30.—In 1868 Wm. A. Owens killed Jas. Langford's brother Henry and was acquitted. Langford attempted a shot gun into Owens' back as he was fleeing. Another time caught Owens several miles on horseback. The latter escaped by taking to the woods. Yesterday they quarreled at a store. Owens ran home, got a double barreled shot gun and navy revolver, and returning he met Langford at the road, and emptied his three barrels of the gun and four chambers of the revolver at his enemy, the foot of both hands barrels entering Langford's chest. Three pistol balls passing through his brain. Langford's navy revolver was found strapped to his body. A warrant for the murderer was issued. It is thought he will not attempt to escape. In 1874 John Hickens was shot from his horse while on the road home. From his striking resemblance to Owens Langford was charged with the murder, it being supposed he mistook him. He fled, but was captured in 1876 and acquitted. Langford has been much in the affairs of bloodshed. Owen killed John Griffin two miles from the spot of today's tragedy. He was acquitted. In Indiana, Mr. Joe Keeler, M. P., was shot. He is not more than 25 years, and is the son of one of the best citizens of the County. Opinion is divided as to whether Owen shot him or not.

THE OLD YEAR AND THE NEW.

The Old Year's going! the bidding wind is whirling his vortices round.

And old men sit by the dying fire.

In his own home, alone.

Watching the embers' fatal glow.

The daisy falling slowly.

Lower his head drops on his breast—

Faster the freight falls.

"The New Year! The New Year!

But I welcome it not," he cries;

"And I don't lay my burden now.

"For I am weary of living with all its din,

Of falling for shadows, vain.

long-pointed, a clear, rose bloom on either cheek, and waxy dark hair hanging in salt-crust fringes over her broad, low forehead.

"And—court—via—don't!" bawled the brakeman, putting in a snow-covered fur cap, and withdrawing it again as quickly as if he had been a magnificent edition of the Jack-in-the-box, wherein children must rejoice at holiday times. And Bertha Hopper knew that she had reached her destination.

Stuff and crumpled from the length of time in which she had been sitting in one position, she rose up, with a little steel-clasped travelling bag in one hand, and a dusty silk umbrella in the other, and made her way to the door.

All she could see when she stepped out upon the wet and slippery platform was a short driving snow, through which the light of the solitary little country depot gleamed fitfully; but the next instant friendly red-gloved hands across her vision like the lightning of the storm, and the reflection

over the station door, she saw a tall looking young man, in a far-extended overcoat; a sealskin cap justly on one side of a crop of chestnut curls, and a red-lined lantern swinging from his left hand, as he stood staring at her with the stern, stern look of a man who had known her for years.

"Cousin Zedekiah!" cried Bertha, aloud, and she made one spring into the arms of the blonde-haired young giant. But she had not time to utter a word, for she was so closely shrouded in the arms of her cousin that she could not see his face.

"Oh! Cousin Zedekiah, I'm so glad to see you! and I hadn't any idea you had grown half so handsome!"

And she gave him a great hug, at the same time holding up her redoubled face to him.

But, to her infinite amazement, the hero of the sealskin cap was not Zedekiah, but her cousin's brother, who was looking at her with a stern, stern look of a man
